NOVEMBER 2020 HIGHLIGHTS

Devil Among Us

From Monday 16 November at 21:00

When an attack happens, investigators must first consider motive. All too often, the true identity of a killer is masked by a twisted web of deceit in which revenge and hate are the fuel feeding their dark souls. Hiding in plain sight, they can spend years in the shadows before finally being caught - a single clue unravelling haunting tales of terror, loathing and fear. As identities are revealed, a chain is completed - uncovering a grim series of interconnected crimes and a trail of suffering in their wake that haunts communities and loved ones for decades. From movie-style revenge plots to serial killers, this chilling series follows the investigations that bring these killers out of the shadows.

Chaos In Court

From Thursday 5 November at 21:00

When individuals are pushed to their limits during a trial, it often leads to unexpected twists and dramatic moments in the courtroom. From brawls and defendants on drugs to a prisoner meeting his baby for the first time, this series reveals the extraordinary and sometimes bizarre activity that can take place within the hallowed walls of the courtroom. Intimate interviews with defendants, witnesses and family members and expert analysis from prosecutors and criminal psychologists reveal the emotional realities of seemingly straightforward legal proceedings.

The Murder Tapes

From Thursday 19 November at 21:50

The series that gets closer to crime investigation than ever continues, with body-cam footage from police departments across America telling stories from the viewpoint of the detectives themselves as they are literally solving the case. From the transgender woman found shot dead in her car to the year-long investigation into a woman's murder outside her workplace, intimate filming technique captures each tense moment of a murder investigation. Detectives' body-cams reveal every twist and turn, every false lead, and every breakthrough until the killer is captured and sentenced.

ID Mysteries

From Sunday 15 November at 21:00

Some of the most high-profile mysteries go under the spotlight with a selection of in-depth documentaries exploring cases where key questions remain unanswered. Brittany Murphy: An ID Murder Mystery examines the shocking death of the Hollywood star, who died aged just 32 in 2009. Authorities said she died of natural causes, but many believed foul play must be involved. Vanished in New Canaan: An ID Mystery seeks to uncover the truth behind a mother-of-five's mysterious disappearance. In Little Boy Lost: An ID Mystery, a mother desperately seeks answers after her seven-year-old son vanished from school without a trace in 2010. Who Killed The Co Ed: An ID Murder Mystery investigates the case of a college student found brutally murdered in her off-campus apartment. Will new forensic technologies lead to her killer? And, Disappeared in the Darkness: An ID Mystery looks at the disappearance of a young woman who had been enmeshed in a love triangle and a web of lies, betrayal and fury.
