NOVEMBER 2020 HIGHLIGHTS

The Family Chantel

From Wednesday 18 November at 22:00

One of most fiery couples from the 90 Day Fiance franchise, Chantel and Pedro, along with their lively in-laws, are back with a bang as the series returns! Since returning from the Dominican Republic, Chantel and Pedro are focused on life together and Chantel's upcoming graduation from nursing school. Meanwhile, Chantel's older brother, Royal, has moved back to Atlanta with his K-1 fiancée from the Philippines, Angenette. They married within a week of reaching the US - and Chantel has some serious suspicions. But this is just the beginning of the explosive drama set to unfold this season as the outspoken modern family continue to live their life bigger and bolder than ever!

Big Time Bake

From Monday 23 November at 20:00

Four bakers race against time in a high-paced test of skill, imagination and strategy to create cookies, cupcakes and a showpiece cake in just six hours in this delectable non-stop competition. Host Buddy Valastro and guest judges visit each kitchen to taste and critique the bakers' themed creations, from magic to travel, while the clock continues to tick down. The pressure is on as the competitors have to bake their best and strategize like never before to create three masterpieces in a limited time. But it will all be worth it for the winning baker, who gets to finally relax on an all-expenses-paid dream holiday of their choice.

Sweet Home Sextuplets

From Wednesday 4 November at 20:00

Parenting skills are taken to a whole new level with Courtney and Eric Waldrop, with their 11-year-old son, two eight-year-old twins...and now, two-year-old sextuplets! The series re-joins the family as events take a dramatic turn. From the threat of a tornado to a shocking decision from one of the kids, there's more action than ever - and with the arrival of a pandemic thrown into the mix, the family faces an uncertain future. This heart-warming series captures all the ups and downs of as the Waldrops continue to navigate life with their larger-than-life brood.

Say Yes to the Dress Lancashire

From Monday 9 November at 20:00

Super-stylist, Gok Wan, is helping more brides in the north of England to find the perfect wedding gown as the series continues. At the award-winning, family run Ava Rose Hamilton bridal boutique in the heart of the countryside in Lancashire, England, Gok is on hand with the dedicated consultants to lend their expert style advice for the big day. But if the dream dress doesn't exist Gok will work with the team to create it! Coming up, Gok helps a bride find a gown for a huge Anglo-Indian wedding; a racing driver is out of her comfort zone trying on wedding dresses and needs steering in the right direction; and, a transgender bride who never thought she'd marry seeks the perfect princess dress. There's drama and emotion at every appointment, but whatever the story, Gok's mission is to make every bride feel incredible.
